DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

PROGRAMME OUT COME & COURSE OUT COME

PROGRAMME OUT COME:

The Sociology learning program teaches about society, human interaction, and how people behave. It helps students understand social norms, values and how society work. It also teaches them to be active citizens who can solve social problems and make positive contribution to their communities. Students learn to apply sociologically ideas to real life situation and develop and real life situation and develop skills to analyze and social issues. The program also focus on Indians unique culture and society to promote understanding and respect for multiplicity. It aims to make students thoughtful and responsible members of society.

COURSE OUT COME:

The Sociology learning program teaches about society, human interaction, and how people behave. It helps students understand social norms, values and how society work. It also teaches them to be active citizens who can solve social problems and make positive contribution to their communities. Students learn to apply sociologically ideas to real life situation and develop and real life situation and develop skills to analyze and social issues. The program also focus on Indians unique culture and society to promote understanding and respect for multiplicity. It aims to make students thoughtful and responsible members of society.