ADD-ON COURSE

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND DIPLOMACY

ORGANISED BY-DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY & POLITICAL SCIENCE

COURSE DURATION: 34HOURS

COURSE CO-ORDINATOR: SATARUPA SARKAR,

COURSE OBJECTIVE:- The ultimate goal of this course is to help the students forge their own analytical framework to understand as well as explain international affairs. This course will thematically examine various topics that scholars addressed over time. International relations allows nations to cooperate with one another, pool resources, and share information as a way to face global issues that go beyond any particular country or region. Contemporary global issues include pandemics, terrorism, and the environment.

- Understand key concepts and concerns under international relations including notably the way power is acquired and used globally and how states and non state actors interact.
- Become familiar with contemporary theories on international relations to use as lenses to differently explain outcomes and events in world affair.
- Effectively develop a logical argument and justify a position through written and oral presentation and demonstrate the ability to read and question original research and theoretical writing.
- Become conversant in current international events through a close reading of the news and interpretation of events through international relations theories and concepts.
